FIANO DI AVELLINO 2022

Tasted by: Raffaele Mosca
(at Rome, 16 Feb 2023)

Part of Ageworthy indigenous Italian whites: 10 to try

Like most Fiano in their youth, the 2022 by Di Meo is initially quite shy. Pear, camomile, lemongrass and hazelnuts slowly emerge and anticipate a tightly-wound progression focusing on tangy salinity and refreshing pithiness, with a herbal tang further emphasising its youthful crispness. While already showing above-average balance, it needs at least a couple years of cellaring to start opening up.
