Fiano di Avellino Di Meo Alessandra Riserva 2013

Aged for nine years before release, the compelling 2012 Fiano Riserva from Di Meo is medium-bodied and structured, with aromas of Mediterranean scrub, pressed Spanish broom and wet stone. Showing serious longevity, the smooth, enveloping palate has a great depth of flavors, including mature apple, pear, nutmeg and smoky mineral alongside a hint of green melon. It combines the complexity of age with surprising freshness and has years to go. Drink through 2028. Abv: 13.5% Kerin O'Keefe April 2023
