Campania winemaker Roberto di Meo has always trusted his Fiano's ability to age, which is why he held back his 1993 vintage and only recently started bottling it. He released 2,800 750 ml bottles and 500 magnums; best of luck finding one.

VINI BIANCHI

Italian white wines are gaining momentum globally as consumer preferences shift. From Grillo in Sicily to Kerner in Alto Adige, producers are stepping into a long-overdue spotlight.
